Practical Info

Travel instructions:

Getting from Prague to Olomouc

If you are planning to come by plane, you will probably come to international Václav Havel Airport Prague (PRG).

The most comfortable way how to get from the airport to the railway station is using a bus line called Airport Express. The bus will take you to the station in cca 35 minutes.

You can use taxi but those at the airport are the most expensive. If you still prefer to go by taxi, we suggest calling City taxi (257 257 257).

Travelling from Prague to Olomouc by train is the most comfortable way that is why we suggest you go for this option.

At the Main Railway Station you need to buy a ticket to Olomouc (the approximate pronunciation of the city name is “O-lo-moats”). Try to find ČD Centrum (Czech Railways Information Office) where they will speak English. A single ticket from Prague to Olomouc costs around 250 CZK. You can decide if you want to travel with Czech railways or private companies such as Regiojet or Leo express. The trip to Olomouc takes approximately 2,5 hours.

If you want to check available connections by trains, coaches, buses and public transport as well, you can use the Internet Timetable Information System known as IDOS. System helps you to search all kinds of connections, from the international ones till the trams timetables in Olomouc. It is also available in English and German.

Public transport in Olomouc

Olomouc has a dense public transport network which consists of tram and bus lines. The major operator is Dopravní podnik města Olomouce (Olomouc Public Transport Company).

Tickets

For legal travelling by public transport you need a valid ticket. The ticket is only valid when marked by the machine on the vehicle so you need to have it before entering the vehicle. Tickets and fares are the same for trams and buses. A single ticket costs 14 CZK and is valid within all parts of Olomouc city for 40 minutes (60 mins at the weekend).
